

Registered Veterinary Technician

Larkspur Landing Vet Hospital is a small but busy veterinary hospital looking to hire a certified RVT.

Duties include but are not limited to:

- Assisting with intake of patients
- Preparing patients for surgical procedures by
 - sedating patients,
 - intubating & extubating,
 - supplying oxygen and anesthesia,
 - placing & removing iv catheter,
 - administering IV fluids,
 - monitoring patients during surgical procedures,
 - assisting in surgical procedures,
 - recovering and monitoring patients after anesthetic procedures
 - Dental assisting; scale and polish
 - Recovering patients after surgery.
 - Each patient needs their vitals taken periodically to ensure they are within normal limits. This consists of recording rectal temperature, heart rate, and respiratory rate on the medical record.
 - Each patient may need additional treatments in recovery including nail trim, flea product, etc.
- Administering medications IV, IM, SQ, PO
- Assisting in patient procedures such as restraining, nail trims, sedation, blood draws, radiographs, etc.
- Assisting doctors with exam, filling prescriptions, reviewing home care instructions with caregiver/owner.
- Assisting in end of day tasks cleaning and prepping surgical instruments, restocking supplies as needed, laundry, and prepping and cleaning of cages, traps, and/or carriers as needed

A positive attitude and ability to multitask a must.

2 weeks paid vacation, matching 401K

$25.00 / hr - $40.00 / hr depending on experience

Email a resume to larkspurlandingvet@yahoo.com