

Veterinary Specialty Center of Seattle is looking for a Licensed Veterinary Technician to join our Oncology Department!

The right candidate:

- must have clinical experience as a technician
- works well on a team
- provides excellent customer service and compassionate care
- comfortable with chemotherapy administration (or willing to learn)
- ability to obtain and accurately record patient vitals/history

Why work at Veterinary Specialty Center of Seattle?

Our hospital has 24-hour Emergency/Critical Care, Neurology, Surgery, Internal Medicine, Cardiology, Oncology, and Radiology. We are honored to have the opportunity to provide cutting-edge, progressive and compassionate medical care and exceptional client service. With our high-volume patient caseload, we are looking for people to help provide quality patient care and exceptional client service.

We provide an incredible Benefits package, plus additional employee perks! VSC has the passion to develop our team members to help grow within the field.

If you are looking to utilize your skill set as a technician and want the opportunity to develop even further, then apply today!

Apply Here: <http://www.Click2Apply.net/wfinwj72rnfwdwrk>

PI106625225