

Irving Pet Hospital

San Francisco

We have an immediate opening for a Full-Time Registered Veterinary Technician or Highly Experienced Veterinary Assistant to join our team!

A Little About Us...

Irving Pet Hospital is an AAHA-accredited, well established general practice in San Francisco. We have served the Inner Sunset community since 1964, focusing on progressive, compassionate care to our patients in a client-centric environment.

Our Mission...

Our mission is to support and nurture the human-animal bond by providing excellence in patient and client care. We expect our employees to always conduct themselves with honesty and integrity and retain a sense of compassion and sensitivity for clients, patients, and fellow coworkers. Our team asks each other for help, offers help, and accepts help, knowing we are all working towards the good of our clients and patients. In addition to possessing competent technical skills and knowledge, our employees uphold a high standard of professionalism and can work effectively as a team.

What we are looking for...

Our ideal candidate will complete multiple duties in the realm of animal care and treatment, customer services and hospital cleanliness, all with the goal of increasing productivity and ensuring that optimum care is given to our patients and clients. Job responsibilities include humane and effective patient restraint, patient assessment, venipuncture, I.V. catheter placement & maintenance, radiography, preparation of laboratory samples, aid in anesthesia induction / maintenance / recovery, dentistry, client education, aid in team-training, and more.

What we offer...

We offer a very competitive compensation package that includes an alternative work week (four 10-hour shifts per week), medical benefits, paid time off, holiday pay, a 401K program, generous pet care discounts, continuing education opportunities, a rewarding work atmosphere, and more!

Salary: $23 - $30 D.O.E.
